About J.D. BIRLA INSTITUTE

J.D. Birla Institute is a private unaided College affiliated to Jadavpur University, Kolkata since 1963. It is conveniently located in the heart of the city at 1 Moira Street, Kolkata-700017 (near Minto Park).

The late Sushila Devi Birla, wife of eminent industrialist late L. N. Birla, established a college for girls in her mother-in-law's name in June 1962. The College was named Smt. Jawahari Devi Birla Institute of Home Science and it filled a much felt gap in the scientific education of young women from Calcutta's conservative families.

Over five decades, the Institute has grown with the needs and demands of the changing times. A Department of Commerce was added in 1997, and in tune with the shifting zeitgeist; another campus was started in 2002 to house the co-educational Department of Management. At this time, the name of the institution was simplified to J. D. Birla Institute. In the year 2009, four new professionally oriented B.Sc courses were introduced apart from two new M.Sc courses. M.Com was introduced in 2013. Currently, the college has about 1700 students.

Sponsoring TRUST
