We are now offering a second and final chance to all of these students by allowing them to submit the synopsis of their Research Projects on or before May 24, 2024, at 2 p.m. Failure to do so will prevent them from presenting in their viva voce beginning on May 25, 2024. No extensions will be allowed under any circumstances. However, students should be aware that this delay in submission will result in a loss of some marks.

Also non appearance in the viva vice on the stipulated exam dates shall be counted as absent and no retest shall be held until next year. No change of dates shall be permitted.
